

NATIONAL POST

Saturday, September 27, 2008

Museum House

Yorkville

Lisa Van de Ven, National Post

Published: Saturday, September 27, 2008

Presented by

 Price range: $1.9-million to $12-million

Location: Bloor Street West and Avenue Road

Featuring an exterior design by Page + Steele Architects and a location close to the Royal Ontario Museum, Museum-House is an ongoing project by Yorkville Corp. The 19-storey building features half- and full-floor suite layouts, with interior designs by Powell & Bonnell and direct elevator access to each unit. The site borders Yorkville, with close access to its shops and restaurants, as well as to the Bloor and Yonge Street subway lines. The project is now under construction.

BUILDER/DEVELOPER Yorkville Corp.

BUILDING 19 storeys

SUITES Two-bedroom, two-bedroom-plus-den and three-bedroom layouts

SIZE 1,942 to 5,618 square feet

OCCUPANCY 2010

TARGET MARKET Largely professionals and empty nesters

FEATURES Suites include 10- and 12-ft. ceilings, gas fireplaces, floor-to-ceiling windows, Miele and SubZero appliances, heated floors in the master bathrooms and built-in safes. Each suite also has direct elevator access.

AMENITIES The site features a fitness centre, a meeting room with a terrace, valet and concierge services.

STANDOUTS The project is close to the shopping and restaurants of Yorkville and Bloor Street, with the Royal Ontario Museum, the Bata Shoe Museum and the subway also nearby.

SALES OFFICE Located at 162 Cumberland Ave. Open by appointment only. Call 416-920-3222 or visit museumhouseonbloor.com.

L. V., National Post

Copyright © 2007 CanWest Interactive, a division of CanWest MediaWorks Publications, Inc.. All rights reserved.